Internet cuts out for a few seconds when i play a game

2020/03/28

So I have a problem with the online game world of tanks. Everytime i play it, my internet stops working entirely for a few seconds. What is weird is that im not using anything else than the game that draws internet. Every other devices in the house are off and the game is the only program running on my pc. When using the same network, i can easily play all other online games while watching youtube on multiple devices. But this one game makes it so my internet cuts out for few seconds... ive played thousands of hours on the game and i have only had this problem for a week (i also had the same pc and internet during the thousands of hours i played the game)
